TUESDAY EVENING, DECEMBER 2.

Scenes in a Court House. - A special to the Louisville Courier Journal from Danville, Ky., gives the following particulars of a tragedy which occurred at Harrodsburg on last Thursday evening. The trial of a lawsuit, in which P. B. Thompson was the principal on one side and Theodore Davies, sr., on the other, was in progress, and each principal was attended during the whole trial by his sons fully armed. At the conclusion of the testimony, while the lawyers were preparing their instructions preparatory to commencing the argument, a son of Thompson and a son of Davies moved toward the door. They were followed by all the others, and in a moment the firing commenced, by which party is not known. Many shots were fired, and Theodore Davies and his son Lane were killed, and Theodore Davies.jr., mortally wounded, and has since died. P. B. Thompson, sr., and his two sons were slightly wounded. Caldwell Davies escaped unhurt.

DEFAULTING RAILWAYS. - The Commercial and Financial Chronicle has prepared a detailed list of all the railroad companies in the United States, fifty-four in number, now in default for non-payment of interest on their bonds. The total of the bonds so neglected counts up $217,959,311, which is about thirteen per cent. of the whole amount of railroad bonds outstanding in the country, viz: $1,700,000,000. This list does not include roads that have already been sold out under foreclosure and passed into new hands, nor those that have recently been embarrassed in their finances but whose interest not having since fallen due are not in default.
